2nd Winner

Thank you again to everyone that returned the 'Account Update details' sheet.

As promised I have drawn a 2nd winner from all of the forms we received, including those that were returned this month.

The lucky winner of a $5 credit was Matt Gollings. His September account has been credited.

Thanks again for all your support and don't forget it is never too late to convert to receiving your account via email.

Electronic Payment

Thank you to all the people who are paying their accounts by electronic transfer. This appears to be very convenient for account holders. We also have nearly everyone putting their customer code on the transfer. Remember without this we can't trace your payment.

In order to really secure your payment information, our website has a payment notification option. Simply follow these steps:

1. Go to our website <http://www.yournewsagent.com.au/mackasgriffithnewsagency>
2. Click on account payment
3. Make your electronic transfer with your bank
4. Complete the details on the website
5. An email will automatically be sent to both you and I to notify us that the payment has been made

This process is a little cumbersome, however, it does provide you with piece of mind that I will know you have made a payment.

New Product Update

Following the trade show I have brought back a range of Artline Clix.

These are markers and highlighters that correspond to the regular Artline Marker range, however, they don't have a lid, they click back in.

In order to save them drying out a plastic cover automatically covers the retracted pen tip.

The range covers permanent, whiteboard markers as well as a full range of retractable highlighters.

See over for more detail.

Coming Soon

Get your taste buds ready. I have signed with one of Australia's most famous chocolate and licorice manufacturers—Darrell Lea.

Within the next month they will be setting up a stand where we currently have the party products.

These will make great Christmas and Birthday presents for the whole family. Also look forward to their Mothers, Fathers and Easter promotions.

Refit

Thanks for your understanding while we installed the new card stand this week. It looks great.
